Conclusions

Respondents having admitted the jurisdictional facts and the parties having agreed to the entry of this decision, the decision will be entered.

Order

Respondents Central Livestock Corporation and Russell M. Frederick individually and doing business as Atlas Cattle Company, their agents and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with activities subject to the Act, shall cease and desist from:

1. Failing to properly maintain a Custodial Account For Shippers Proceeds, as required by Section 201.42 of the regulations (9 C.F.R. §201.42), while operating as a market agency selling livestock on a commission basis;
2. Misusing a market agency custodial account by withdrawing funds for a purpose other than for payment of (1) the net proceeds to the consignor or shipper, or to any person that the market agency knows is entitled to payment, (2) to pay lawful charges against the consignment of livestock which the market agency shall, in its capacity as agent, be required to pay, and (3) to obtain any sums due the market agency as compensation for its services;
3. Failing to remit the full amount of net proceeds due from the sale of livestock within the time period required by Section 201.43 of the regulations (9 C.F.R. §201.43), in connection with operations as a market agency selling livestock on a commission basis;

4. Issuing checks for which there are insufficient funds on deposit and available in the account upon which the checks are drawn to pay the checks when presented; and

5. Failing to pay, when due, the full purchase of livestock as required by Section 409 of the Act (7 U.S.C. §228b).

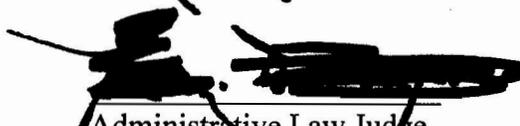

Respondents Central Livestock Corporation and Russell M. Frederick individually and doing business as Atlas Cattle Company are hereby suspended as registrants under the Act for a period of 5 years and thereafter until custodial account shortages are corrected.

The provisions of this Order shall become final and effective on the sixth (6th) day after service upon Respondents.

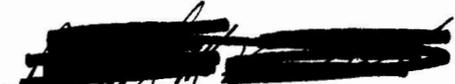

Copies of this Decision and Order shall be served upon the parties.

Issued in Washington D.C.

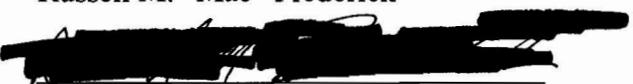

this 15th day of May, 2007.
